Bonnet Creek Resort, Hilton's largest development, is situated on 240 pristine acres near the Walt Disney World Resort. Bonnet Creek Resort is also home to the first Waldorf-Astoria hotel constructed outside of New York. The resort features two unique pool area experiences consisting of a lagoon-style pool with lazy river, and an elegant formal pool with zero-entry and private cabanas, as well as luxury accommodations, a wide variety of amenities, meeting and convention space, and a Rees Jones championship golf course.
