family park
winchefigen, germany

© 2008 Canin Associates, Inc. all rights reserved.

restaurant

product type
amenity buildings
townhomes

product type
restaurant: 483m^2
fitness center: 1,319m^2
townhomes: 130-142m^2

client
terri properties

Family Park residents are drawn to their village center partly because it acts as the hub of village activity and partly because of the dramatic views from its excellent hilltop location. The village center includes a fitness center with a community pool, a restaurant with two tiers of outdoor decks, outdoor recreation with sport courts, plenty of play areas within the open park space, and a kindergarten school. The outdoor decks showcase spectacular sunset views and includes a spill-over outdoor space for seasonal biergarten events.

fitness center

townhomes

canin associates
urban planning • landscape architecture • architectural design