

services

master planning
landscape architecture

project size

1,250 acres
4,800 dwelling units
130,000 sq. ft. commercial space

features

gordy lewis championship golf mediterranean theme

client

the ronto group &
westbook partners

Palmira, a mixed-use and residential resort community, includes landscape that draws on Mediterranean influences for the main entrance and neighborhood gateways theming. The master plan of this exquisite community reduced the influence of the automobile by providing predominantly two-lane streets lined with trees and attractively-landscaped sidewalks, views of the golf course and linear parks.

